

Calimara Matters

Integrated Management Systems Policy

Calimara Matters is committed to exceed stakeholders' expectations by delivering safe products of dependable quality and value to its customers, promoting environmental protection and maintaining safe and healthy working conditions for the people.

Calimara Matters shall:

- Ensure compliance with applicable legal and other requirements.
- Build capabilities to deliver quality products by investing in innovative technologies that optimize production and enhance efficiency, and training program that develop technical skills, increase awareness and enhance level of excellence.
- Promote responsible use of resources for environment sustainability.
- Adopt work practices and technologies that promote prevention, mitigation and control of any injury, health risk or environmental damage due to our activities.
- Provide an engaging work environment, encourage employee consultation and participation at relevant stages to enhance performance of the Integrated Management System.
- Continually improve the effectiveness of the Integrated Management System in order to enhance customer satisfaction and promote our business sustainability.

Date: March 01, 2020
Rev.: R0
Next Review: March 01, 2023

Ranjit H. Bhavnani
Managing Director